Description

Nestled on the historic London Road in King's Lynn, this exquisite Grade Two listed townhouse, built in 1840 and restored by the King's Lynn Preservation Trust in 2014, offers a unique blend of period charm and modern living. With its striking high ceilings adorned with elegant coving and substantial skirting boards, the property exudes a sense of grandeur that is both inviting and impressive. The residence boasts two generous reception rooms, providing ample space for both relaxation and entertaining. Each room is filled with natural light, thanks to the beautifully restored sash windows that are a hallmark of this period home. You will also find a generous Kitchen/diner on the ground floor with the added convenience of a utility and cloakroom. The five spacious bedrooms are designed to offer comfort and tranquillity, making them perfect retreats for family members or guests. The property features two well-appointed bathrooms, ensuring convenience for all occupants. A standout feature of this home is the stunning return balustrade split staircase, which serves as a focal point and adds to the overall elegance of the interior. Additionally, the property includes a two-storey barn at the rear, offering versatile space that could be utilised for a variety of purposes, whether as a workshop, studio, or additional storage. This townhouse is not just a home; it is a piece of history, beautifully restored to maintain its original character while providing the comforts of modern living. With its prime location and charming features, this property is a rare find in King's Lynn, perfect for those seeking a distinguished residence in a vibrant community.
