Description

This spacious detached bungalow offers well proportioned and flexible accommodation, set on a generous plot in a popular residential location.

The property is arranged around a welcoming entrance hall which leads through to the main living accommodation. A bright and comfortable living room provides an excellent space for relaxing or entertaining, while the kitchen offers ample storage and worktop space for everyday living.

The bungalow benefits from well sized bedrooms together with a family bathroom, creating versatile accommodation that will appeal to a wide range of buyers including those looking for single level living, families or buyers seeking a property with further potential.

Externally the property enjoys private garden space providing a pleasant setting for outdoor seating, gardening or entertaining. To the front there is off road parking and access.

The property is conveniently positioned for local shops, schools and everyday amenities, while Hemel Hempstead town centre is within easy reach offering a wide range of shopping, leisure and transport facilities. Hemel Hempstead mainline station provides regular services into London Euston, making the area popular with commuters.
