Description

Nestled in the heart of Garnlydan, Ebbw Vale, this three-bedroom end terrace house offers an exciting opportunity for those looking to create their dream home. Featuring two separate reception rooms, the property provides a flexible layout that's perfect for growing families or anyone craving additional space for entertaining and relaxing. The adjoining kitchen boasts an additional utility area, ensuring practicality for busy households.

Upstairs, the home includes a spacious first-floor bathroom and a separate WC, providing extra convenience for daily routines. The property, which is being sold with no onward chain and as freehold, holds wonderful potential for modernisation and promises scope to add your personal touch both inside and out.

Step outside and you'll discover a generous rear garden accessible through the house or through a private side pathway, ideal for family gatherings, children's play, or quietly soaking in the surrounding views this superb location affords. With the Brecon Beacons National Park just a short drive away, outdoor enthusiasts can enjoy walking, cycling, and scenic landscapes right on their doorstep. Excellent local amenities, reputable schools, and community facilities in Ebbw Vale are all within easy reach, as well as transport links connecting you to the surrounding towns and Cardiff for wider commuting.

Offered for sale via secure online auction, this property invites vision, renovation, and transformation. Rarely do such promising homes become available without chain or delay.

Unlock the potential of this inviting house in Garnlydan, enquire now to arrange your viewing and start planning how you'll make this home your own.
